

Results of this study showed that occlusal valve vent has better effect on the seating of the crowns. And it will solve the problems accompanied with the other occlusal vent hole which has been recommended by many investigators.